Introducing the new BE YOU 2025 Collection, designed to embody the lightness and fluidity of movements that inspire the art of dance. This diverse range of products includes leotards, skirts, shirts, pants, leggings, tops, shorts, and unitards, all crafted with details that enhance both style and performance. The collection features innovative laces and textures that elevate the aesthetic of each piece without compromising usability. Modern and exclusive cuts provide a unique appearance, allowing every dancer to express themselves fully while performing. The color palette introduces refreshing hues like ocean spray and petal pink, complementing the sophistication of classic black. Explore the entire collection and discover how our pieces can elevate your dance experience by seamlessly blending comfort, innovation, and style in every detail!

TILER PECK

A ballerina with long brown hair is captured in a dynamic dance pose. She is wearing a teal, sleeveless, spaghetti-strap bodice with a long, flowing, sheer skirt. Her right arm is raised high, and her left arm is extended to the side. She is standing on her right leg, which is in a pointed position. The background consists of light-colored, draped fabric curtains.

MIRA

Mira Nadon, a distinguished principal dancer with New York City Ballet, was born in Boston, Massachusetts, and began her ballet training at the age of six. Her dedication and talent led her to attend the School of American Ballet (SAB) where she finished her training and then joined the company in 2018.

We are honored to include Mira in this collection and extend our heartfelt thanks to her for sharing her exceptional artistry with us. Her journey is a beautiful reminder of the power of dedication, hard work, and the unrelenting pursuit of excellence in the world of ballet.
